Temperance Convention.

Editor Hustler:—The County Temperance Convention met pursuant to the call of the president in the court room at 2:30 p.m., April 29th.

The convention was called to order by President Pickens. Invocation by Rev. J. B. Boone, after which an opening address was delivered by the president.

Following this address a question box was opened containing a number of important questions concerning temperance reform.

Interesting talks, though brief, were given by Col. Pickens, F. S. Starrette, Dr. Few and others.

The plan of further extending the temperance work was brought to the notice of the convention by a recommendation that a county organizer be appointed for the purpose of organizing local unions throughout the county. The secretary was appointed organizer, and requested to correspond with the teachers of the county, soliciting this co-operation, and requesting replies concerning the possibility of organizing such unions.

It is earnestly hoped that not only the teachers will respond, but that every citizen who loves the cause of temperance will lend his unflinching support to the great cause of temperance; and may the time be not a great distance in the future when intemperance will be ruled out of the hearts and lives of our people; and that the young of our land may grow up into more settled and temperate habits. R. G. MACE, Sec.

A Good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, the would have better complexions.
